The Residential Complex:

The property sits within one of the largest gated residential complexes in the Iancu Nicolae - Pipera area, comprising over 100 units set among generous green spaces and wide, low-traffic streets with a 20 km/h speed limit. The compound is accessed via two controlled entry points — one from Iancu Nicolae street, one from Pipera Boulevard — both staffed by experienced security teams around the clock. Multiple children's playgrounds within the complex make it a particularly safe and suitable environment for families.

Interior & Functionality:

The house is fully furnished with well-maintained finishes and a functional layout suited to both family living and working from home. The spacious living area features a fireplace — a practical and atmospheric asset through the colder months — and the fully equipped kitchen includes a dishwasher. The three bedrooms are separate and well-proportioned, providing privacy and quiet for every member of the household.

Location:

Iancu Nicolae - Pipera is the residential address of choice for expat families, entrepreneurs, senior executives, and diplomats in Bucharest. The area's defining advantage is its concentration of leading international schools — all within minutes of this property. British School of Bucharest is 1 minute away (290 m), Cambridge School of Bucharest and Mark Twain International School are both 2 minutes away, the American International School of Bucharest (AISB) is 3 minutes away, and Lycée Français Anna de Noailles is 7 minutes away.

World Class Atlantis — one of Bucharest's most complete fitness and wellness facilities, with indoor and outdoor pools — is 190 metres from the complex, reachable in under 1 minute. Băneasa Forest is a 200-metre walk from the compound gates. Băneasa Shopping City, IKEA, and a wide range of international dining and coffee options are minutes away.

Connectivity is equally strong: central Bucharest is accessible via the main arterials serving the area, Henri Coandă International Airport (Otopeni) is approximately 15 minutes away, and the Floreasca - Pipera business district — one of Romania's most active corporate hubs — is easily accessible outside peak hours. Pipera Metro Station is 8 minutes away, providing a fast public transport alternative.

The Iancu Nicolae - Pipera area hosts a vibrant and internationally diverse community of professionals and families, and consistent demand for quality properties here has supported sustained long-term real estate values.

A property with real character, in the most sought-after gated residential complex in northern Bucharest — for those who understand that address and living environment matter as much as the property itself.

FAQ
